Singing Conference

February 20 – 23, 2013
Sebastopol, California

UNCOVERING THE DEEPER ASPECTS OF SINGING SINGING AS A SOCIAL ART AND ITS IMPACT ON OUR COMMUNITIES

Join with us as we joyfully explore the world of Werbeck singing and realize the many gifts it affords us as we open our hearts and listen to what lives behind the given tones. A path to new community is opened before us.

Each day will offer lots of singing (bring your own songs to share), eurythmy and improvisation.

LOCATION

Sebastopol Independent Charter School
200 S. Main Street, Sebastopol, CA 95472

PRESENTERS

Diana Ingraham Barnes
Robin Elliott Dagg

are singers, songwriters, teachers of Werbeck singing, Waldorf School Music teacher (Diane), therapists and choral leaders who will guide us on our musical path during these days.

Anne Cook is a eurythmist, therapeutic eurythmist and singer who will guide us in eurythmy.
